

EVALUATION

Financial Training Program
 Evaluation

The objective of this program has been to help you put your actions into perspective—what consequences writing a bad check has for you and for the victim of your crime. Another objective has been to give you the desire and the tools to start getting into better financial health. All this is aimed at making this the last time you pass a bad check.

Please take a few minutes of your time to fill out the last page. It will help us make this course better for other people in the same situation as yours. When completed, fold with the first page (Training Verification Form) and mail.

Rate the following statements by what you have gotten out of this program and how well the program has related to your situation. Put one checkmark in the appropriate box for each statement:
